

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
Case No. 3:22cv191

KANAUTICA ZAYRE-BROWN,

Plaintiff,

v.

N.C. DEPARTMENT OF ADULT CORRECTION, et al.,

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF DANIEL K. SIEGEL

1. My name is Daniel K. Siegel. I am an attorney with the ACLU of North Carolina Legal Foundation (ACLU-NC), where I am employed as the Deputy Legal Director. In that position, I supervise staff attorneys, paralegals, and law students. I represent the plaintiff in this matter.

2. ACLU-NC is a non-profit civil rights organization and law firm dedicated to protecting the civil rights and liberties of all North Carolinians. ACLU-NC does not charge clients for its services.

3. I have expertise in civil rights litigation generally and prison litigation specifically. I graduated from the University of North Carolina School of Law in 2013. Afterwards, I clerked for Justice Cheri Beasley at the Supreme Court of North Carolina and worked in private practice before joining North Carolina Prisoner Legal Services in 2017, where I exclusively represented incarcerated clients in civil litigation. I joined ACLU-NC in 2019 and have continued to work on prison cases as well LGBTQ+ issues.

4. My co-counsel Jaclyn Maffetore is a Senior Staff Attorney with ACLU-NC. She graduated from Elon University School of Law in 2016. She then practiced voting rights law with the Southern Coalition for Social Justice for three years before joining ACLU-NC in 2019. Ms. Maffetore is the lead attorney in this case.

5. My co-counsel Michele Delgado is a Staff Attorney with ACLU-NC. She graduated from North Carolina Central University School of Law in 2016. She then worked as a public defender and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services before joining ACLU-NC in 2021.

6. ACLU-NC has maintained a relationship with Plaintiff since before her transfer to a women's prison, and Ms. Maffetore has maintained a relationship with her since 2019. Plaintiff's counsel with ACLU-NC have maintained close contact with Plaintiff through letters, prison phone calls, family members, visitations, and regular email and phone contact since her release from prison. This included complaint and declaration review and witness preparation as well as regular updates and strategy discussions regarding her case and transmission of all major filings through legal mail.

7. ACLU-NC requests an hourly rate of $262.50 for its attorneys, which I understand to be the maximum currently allowed by the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA). I believe this rate to be reasonable given the skill and experience of Ms. Maffetore, Ms. Delgado, and myself, and that, but for the PLRA, we would likely be entitled to a significantly higher hourly market rate.

8. Attached to this declaration as Attachments 1, 2, and 3 are timesheets indicating the time spent by Ms. Maffetore, Ms. Delgado, and myself on tasks associated with this litigation. In accordance with ACLU-NC's regular practice, the time indicated on these timesheets was recorded contemporaneously with the work being done and rounded down to tenth of an hour increments.

9. In the exercise of billing judgment, Ms. Maffetore, Ms. Delgado, and I have reviewed these timesheets and removed entries that may be duplicative, vague, excessive, or otherwise not recoverable. We have also removed entries for time spent briefing Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction, and time that we could identify as only relating to Plaintiff's unsuccessful claims. We are not seeking fees for time spent on administrative tasks, or by paralegals and law students. In all, we have removed approximately 1,000 hours of time billed to this case.

10. The timesheets attached here reflect time spent over a period of more than three years investigating this case; drafting the complaint; defeating Defendants' motion to dismiss; conducting extensive discovery, which included reviewing thousands of documents and taking or defending fifteen depositions, including five expert depositions; partially defeating Defendants' Rule 35 motion; routine litigation tasks including legal research, setting legal strategy, client communications, and communications with co-counsel; two rounds of summary judgment briefing; briefing Daubert motions to exclude Defendants' expert witnesses; preparing for and participating in an evidentiary hearing; defeating Defendants' motions to stay the Court's permanent injunction before this Court and the Fourth Circuit; merits briefing at the Fourth Circuit; and responding to Defendants' submissions in response to this Court's permanent injunction. I believe that all these tasks were reasonably necessary for the successful prosecution of this case.

11. ACLU-NC is a non-profit with limited resources and so must be judicious in selecting cases to litigate. The time ACLU-NC attorneys spent on this case had an associated opportunity cost for the attorneys involved—especially the case's lead attorney, Jaclyn Maffetore—who had less time to investigate and litigate other civil rights matters.

12. In my experience, private law firms in North Carolina are rarely willing to devote significant resources to representing incarcerated plaintiffs seeking injunctive relief, which often require significant resources over a long period of time—including the engagement of expert witnesses—and are unlikely to produce a financial windfall. These cases almost always require the active involvement of public interest organizations such as ACLU-NC.

13. Plaintiff's counsel with ACLU-NC seek to recover for a total of 1,557.5 hours. At the current PLRA rate, ACLU-NC's lodestar is $408,843.75.<sup>1</sup>

14. As detailed in Attachment 4 to this declaration, Plaintiff's counsel seek to recover a total of $4,138.94 in non-taxable expenses.

15. Given the complexity of this case, its subject matter, the degree of success achieved, and the need to incentivize competent attorneys to represent incarcerated and transgender clients who have meritorious claims, I believe the amount of costs, fees, and expenses sought by Plaintiff's counsel at ACLU-NC is reasonable.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed this the 21st day of July, 2025.
